Gospel MK 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean."

Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him,

"I do will it. Be made clean."

The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean.

Dear Padre,

Why is church often packed on Ash Wednesday, even though it is not a holy day of obligation?

Indeed, pastoral experience corroborates your observation. Holy days of obligation draw well—but it's standing-room only on Ash Wednesday. There's something undeniably elemental about the ugly smudge of ashes on the forehead. People wear it without embarrassment or shame. It is as if to say, "I'm Catholic and proud of it."

Ash Wednesday is unique because it signals the beginning of Lent, the Church's special time of confession and renewal in preparation for Easter. It is what Christians are all about—people who have died with Christ in the waters of baptism in order to rise with him to a new life. We renew our baptismal commitment to be his people in the world. As we recall and celebrate Christ's passage through death to life, we renew our own death to old sinful ways to rise and live with recaptured vigor.

The symbols of Ash Wednesday touch us powerfully. When we hear, "Remember, you are dust and to dust you shall return," we are reminded of our vulnerability and dependence on God. Despite our mechanisms of power, ultimately, like dust in the wind, we can be whisked away in an instant and brought to our knees.

At the same time, we are called to scale the spiritual heights to turn away from sin and be faithful to the gospel, affirming that we are a people with an enduring destiny and a sacred mission in the world. Together we get our ashes and turn back to the Lord.

A Word From Pope Francis

[Jesus says] he is the real instrument of the Father's mercy, who goes to encounter everyone, bringing consolation and salvation, and, in doing so, he manifests God's justice. The blind, the lame, the lepers, the deaf regain their dignity and are no longer excluded because of their disease.

—General Audience, September 7, 2016

The Courage to Heal

Leprosy was a highly contagious skin disease that led to certain death for anyone who caught it in Jesus' time. For good reason the Jewish law demanded that a leper live set apart and scream out as he walked along to keep everyone at a safe distance. Imagine the pitiful scene of everyone discreetly but purposefully moving away at the sound of someone screaming, "Unclean, unclean!"

Yet the leper doesn't scream to keep Jesus away. He walks right up to our Lord and confesses his faith in Jesus' power to heal him of this incurable bacteria. He humbly admits his contagious illness and places himself before Jesus. And unlike anyone else might do, Jesus doesn't run away, he walks toward him. He does the unthinkable. He touches him!

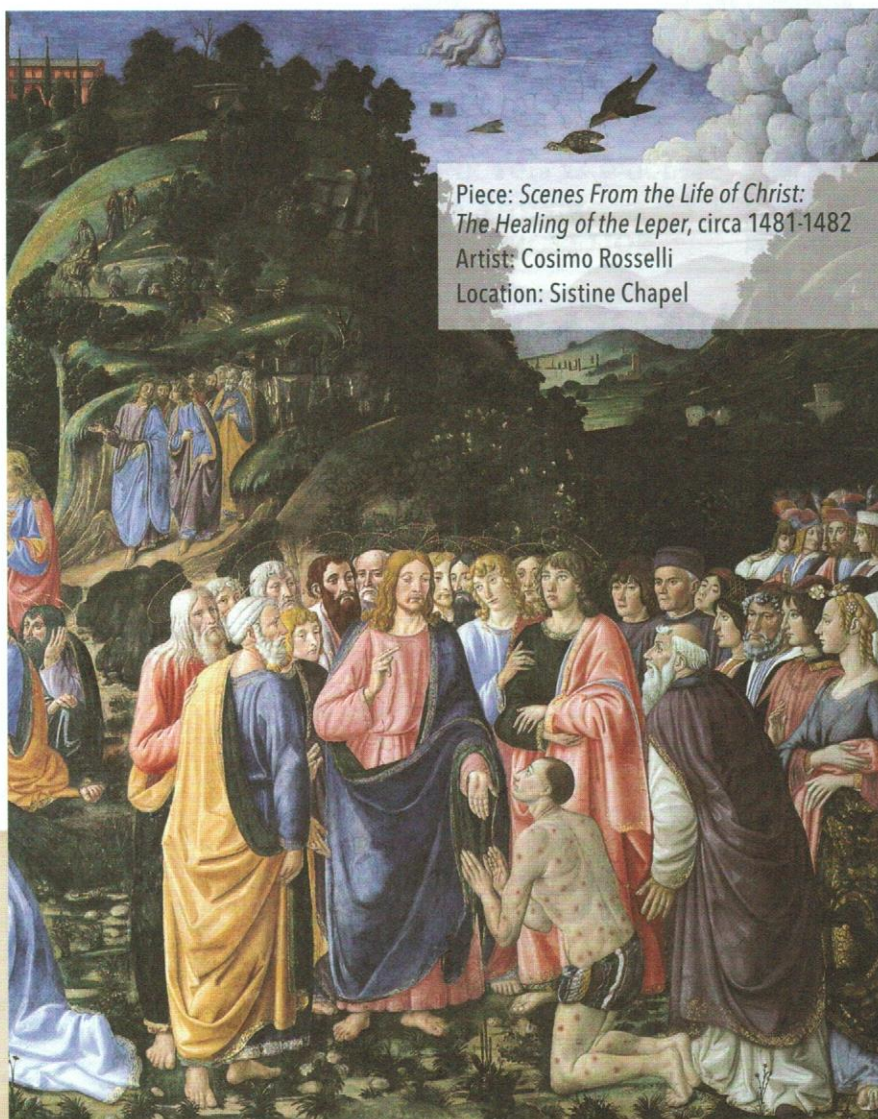

We need not be ashamed of our deadly sin that eats away at our heart and cripples our ability to love. Go to Jesus, expose it to him, and let his loving touch transform you.

The terrible disease of leprosy was still a major problem well into the nineteenth century when St. Damian, a Belgian missionary, went to the Hawaiian Island of Molokai to serve as parish priest to all the lepers quarantined on that island. Not fearing to touch them, he cared for them for many years until, as expected, he contracted the disease and died of it.

This is what it means to be a Christian! Be like Jesus. Be not afraid of your wounds or those of others, no matter how repellent, and give of yourself to care for them.

For Reflection

How at peace am I with my own wounds, sins, and imperfections?

Am I mature and free enough to ask for help and also reach out and help others in their moral or physical suffering?

*"If you wish, you can make me clean."
...[Jesus] said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean."*

LENT 2018

Church of Immaculate Conception Fr. Kevin Achbach, Pastor

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
"Lent is the liturgical season of forty days which begins with Ash Wednesday and ends with the celebration of the Paschal Mystery (Easter Triduum). Lent is the primary penitential season in the Church's liturgical year, reflecting the forty days Jesus spent in the desert in fasting and prayer" (Catechism of the Catholic Church). 18 Read today's Gospel before you go to church (Mark 1:12-15). Write down two things you learned and keep it with you throughout the day. 25 Every Sunday in Lent is a "Little Easter." Spread joy by smiling at everyone you meet, regardless of how you feel. 4 Take one idea from today's Gospel reading or homily to put into practice this coming week. II Laetare Sunday Make Sunday special. Invite friends and neighbors over for a potluck brunch after Mass. 18 Choose someone who has passed away or needs extra help as your Mass intention today. 25 Palm Sunday Today's Gospel narrates the events of Holy Week. Place yourself in the scene and "walk through" Holy Week with our Lord.	19 Grow in your faith by believing that God is there for you. Entrust your worries to God and know he will take care of it. 26 Lent is a stressful time of year for priests. Offer to perform some act of service for your parish. Ask at the rectory for suggestions. 5 Pick a virtue (prudence, justice, temperance, fortitude, faith, hope, or charity) and practice it for the rest of the week. 12 Make a good examination of conscience, with the Ten Commandments as a guide. You can find them in Exodus, Chapter 20. 19 Solemnity of St. Joseph St. Joseph served God faithfully. What God said, he did. Resolve today to fulfill your responsibilities without complaining. 26 Tonight and every night this week, pray for the catechumens coming into the Church at the Easter Vigil.	20 Call Catholic Relief Services (877-HELP-CRS or www.catholicrelief.org) to see how you can help. 27 Read the seven penitential psalms in the Old Testament book of Psalms that express remorse for sins: 6, 32, 38, 51, 102, 130, and 143. 6 Ask God for a new grace today that will bring you closer to him. 13 Gather up the loose change around the house and put it in a jar. Donate the money to a local charity. 20 Psalm 136 is a song about God's mercy. Read through it and think of all the ways God has shown you mercy this Lent. 27 Clean your closet of clothes you no longer need. Donate gently used items that you no longer wear to charity.	14 Ash Wednesday Attend an Ash Wednesday liturgy and wear the cross of ashes as a sign that you are seeking both forgiveness and eternal life from Christ. 21 Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy, given to the world through St. Faustina to help repair the hurt caused by sin. Find it at www.usccb.org. 28 Just for today, don't listen to the radio while you drive. Pray instead or listen to sacred music. 7 Make a fresh start on your Lenten journey today. Renew your Lenten observances. 14 Resolve to go the entire day without judging or criticizing anyone. 21 Deny yourself something you would like to buy. Then, give the money you saved to the poor. 28 Forgive someone who hurt you; ask forgiveness of those whom you hurt.	15 Start a journal for your prayer intentions. Wait and see how God, who always answers prayer, answers yours. 22 Pray for God to bless someone you don't like, or who you know doesn't like you. I March When older people become less active, they can also become forgotten. Visit a senior you know, take one to lunch, and just listen. 8 Pick one Corporal Work of Mercy to do: give food/drink to the hungry/thirsty, shelter homeless, clothe the naked, visit the sick or imprisoned, bury the dead. 15 Today, do one act of kindness for someone without expecting thanks in return. 22 Spend time before the Eucharist in prayer and adoration. Or find time when the church is open to be with Jesus. 29 Holy Thursday The Church celebrates the Last Supper, when Jesus instituted the Eucharist and the priesthood. Celebrate by going to church tonight.	16 It is our Christian responsibility to abstain from meat on Fridays during Lent as a form of penance. 23 Support your parish's Lent collections, whether it is the Bishop's Lenten campaign, Operation Rice Bowl or a mission collection. 2 Today, replace each snack with a prayer, or, if you do snack, say an extra prayer of thanksgiving that you have enough to eat. 9 Attend a Stations of the Cross service if your parish offers one. If not, find them here: www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/devotions/stations-of-the-cross/. 16 Consider making today a day of fasting. When you feel hungry, remind yourself of those for whom hunger isn't a choice. 23 Today, drink only water. Pray for those who can't afford the luxury of having iced coffee, soda, etc. 30 Good Friday Today is a day of fasting and abstinence. Read and meditate on John's account of Jesus' passion and death (John 18-19).	17 Pick a saint to learn about and imitate. Ask for his or her special help and protection during Lent. 24 Adopt a priest or member of a religious order in your diocese and pray for them every day of Lent. 3 Attend a Reconciliation Service or go to Confession on your own. Make a sincere confession and experience God's forgiveness. 10 Show Jesus you are willing to carry your cross by tackling something difficult you've been putting off. 17 St. Patrick's Day St. Patrick evangelized Ireland. In his honor, explore ways to support your parish religious education program or youth group. 24 Start spring cleaning for Easter: Vacuum, dust, and straighten the rooms of the house you use the most to prepare for Jesus' Resurrection. 31 Holy Saturday Jesus' sacrifice gives us hope. Today, make a list of everything for which you have hope in this life and the next.
