Vocations Speaker

Rhonda Gruenewald, author of "Hundredfold: Building a Parish Vocation Ministry", will be speaking in the diocese. With energy, wit and wisdom. Rhonda will share with us her own successes and strategies for creating a culture of vocations in the parish and for reaching young people with a pro-vocations message. Rhonda will give priests and lay people practical know-how on how to build and sustain a healthy vocation ministry in our parishes. This workshop is for ordinary Catholics who want to inspire an extraordinary new generation of priests and religious. The Office of Vocations sponsors these workshops with generous help from local councils of the Knights of Columbus. Two identical workshops will be held Friday, April 22 at St. John Parish, Ft. Pierre and on Saturday morning, April 23 at Our Lady of the Black Hills Parish, Piedmont. ### Tradition: Family

"Economic and social policies as well as organization of the work world should be continually evaluated in light of their impact on the strength and stability of family life. The long-range future of this nation is intimately linked with the well-being of families, for the family is the most basic form of human community. Efficiency and competition in the marketplace must be moderated by greater concern for the way work schedules and compensation support or threaten the bonds between spouses and between parents and children. ## Serving the whole flock in a diverse parish

How do we serve everyone in a culturally diverse parish?

In the past it was common to have parishes dedicated to different ethnic groups where such populations were concentrated. In 2010, the U.S. bishops found that 33 percent of all U.S. parishes were culturally diverse, and that's perhaps using a narrow understanding of diversity. Then in 2014, they published Best Practices for Shared Parishes: So That They May All Be One, in which they outline a nine-movement process for creating an inclusive parish. The fact that there are nine movements is notable. It means that we slowly move toward inclusiveness; we don't simply start a Spanish Mass and think the job is done.

I recently worked in a small parish in the Mississippi Delta. In this parish there is a Mass at 9 AM that reflects the worship style of a group of African Americans. Another Mass at 11 celebrates a more traditional Catholic service. The Mass at 6 PM is in Spanish. No one is limited to any one service, but each service reflects a style that different ethnic groups are more comfortable with.

Then there is Rosemary, an Italian-American whose family has lived in the area since the beginning of the nineteenth century. Rosemary is the volunteer director of education. She attends every Mass, welcoming people and making them feel at home. Welcoming is the first movement toward serving everyone in a diverse parish.

FOLLOW HIM

Being a disciple of Christ means focusing our hearts entirely on Christ and trusting that he will show us the way to the Father. It means letting go of our self-centeredness and allowing God to take possession of our hearts. We do this simply by inviting him into our hearts with each new day and conversing with him as a friend.

Lent

Fifth Sunday of Lent ♦ March 13, 2016

Is 43:16–21 ♦ Phil 3:8–14 ♦ Jn 8:1–11

At the climax of The Miracle Worker, the play about deaf and blind Helen Keller and her teacher, Annie Sullivan, Annie spells water into Helen's hand while water pours over Helen's other hand. Helen's face changes as she suddenly makes the connection between the signs Annie is making and the reality of the water. Helen starts touching things wildly while Annie signs the letters in her hand at an ever faster rate. Finally, Helen points to Annie, who spells T-E-A-C-H-E-R in her hand. The best teacher is not the one who can speak the loudest or the most, but the one who patiently does the same thing over and over until the student makes the connection and finally learns.

Jesus is our teacher, and in the Gospel story today he demonstrates it not with a wordy lecture but by drawing in the dust and inviting his reluctant students to think about what they are doing. We don't know what he wrote, and it isn't important. He neither engaged in the debate nor shamed the woman brought before him. He made the scribes and Pharisees look and wait. Then he asked them to judge themselves first. It's a good lesson for us all. Before we condemn anyone else, we should look at the ways in which we have sinned. The lesson continues for the woman as she is told to go and sin no more.

As Helen was attentive to Annie, let us be attentive to what Jesus spells out for us. His lessons lead us to new life and the knowledge of God.

A Word From Pope Francis

"Dialogue is very important for our own maturity, because in confronting another person, confronting other cultures, and also confronting other religions in the right way, we grow; we develop and mature."

—Address to students and teachers from Japan, August 21, 2013

Prayer for the Jubilee of Mercy ~ Pope Francis

Lord Jesus Christ,

you have taught us to be merciful
like the heavenly Father,
and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.

Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew
from being enslaved by money;
the adulteress and Magdalene
from seeking happiness only in created things;
made Peter weep after his betrayal;
and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.

Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us,
the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman:
"If you knew the gift of God!"

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all
by forgiveness and mercy:
let the Church be your visible face in the world,
its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness
in order that they may feel compassion
for those in ignorance and error:

let everyone who approaches them
feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God:

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing,
so that the Jubilee of Mercy
may be a year of grace from the Lord,

and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm,
may bring good news to the poor,
proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy,
you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.
