St. Juliana's (Patron Saint of sickness) is a list of the people we are currently praying for because of illness or in the military. To stay current, names on the illness list will remain for four weeks. The military list will remain until we are notified. Please call the office (842-3520) to request continued prayers. To preserve the dignity and privacy of individuals, we ask that only an immediate family member call to request publication of names. We will presume they have permission from the individual to do so. Thank you for your understanding.

Vocations Speaker

Rhonda Gruenewald, author of "Hundredfold: Building a Parish Vocation Ministry", will be speaking in the diocese.
With energy, wit and wisdom, Rhonda will share with us her own successes and strategies for creating a culture of vocations in the parish and for reaching young people with a pro-vocations message. Rhonda will give priests and lay people practical know-how on how to build and sustain a healthy vocation ministry in our parishes. This workshop is for ordinary Catholics who want to inspire an extraordinary new generation of priests and religious. The Office of Vocations sponsors these workshops with generous help from local councils of the Knights of Columbus. Two identical workshops will be held Friday, April 22 at St. John Parish, Ft. Pierre and on Saturday morning, April 23 at Our Lady of the Black Hills Parish, Piedmont. For more information or to register, please visit www.gods-call.com or call Shawna at 716-5214, ext. 233.

Sunday, March 20th Community/Participation

"But God did not create man as a solitary, for from the beginning "male and female he created them" (Gen. 1:27). Their companionship produces the primary form of interpersonal communion. For by his innermost nature man is a social being, and unless he relates himself to others he can neither live nor develop his potential. The Church in the Modern World

"The nation's founders took daring steps to create structures of participation, mutual accountability, and widely distributed power to ensure the political rights and today to expand economic participation, broaden the sharing of economic power, and make economic decisions more accountable to the common good. Economic Justice

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

♦ March 20, 2016 ♦

Lk 19:28–40 ♦ Is 50:4–7 ♦ Phil 2:6–11 ♦ Lk 22:14—23:56 or 23:1–49

On Palm Sunday, we gather as a Church to celebrate Jesus' coming into Jerusalem and hear the story of his passion and death. Each Gospel writer tells the story a little differently. Each one lifts up different faces and characters, and through their eyes we watch what unfolds.

Luke's Gospel is the only one that mentions the women who followed Jesus from Galilee (23:55–56). We know nothing about these women other than where they came from, but two things stand out: These women temporarily set aside their Passover preparations to care for a man who had been publicly condemned as a criminal, and they were willing to look their beloved Jesus' death full in the face. They watched while Joseph of Arimathea lay him in the tomb and made sure that Jesus would be cared for even in death. They saw where he was buried and laid out and then went to prepare the spices and oils that would anoint his body and honor it.

Today, these women are examples of the countless anonymous disciples who quietly challenge culture and politics to follow the Lord's call. We rarely notice them, even now, but they are in our churches and our neighborhoods, willing to do what needs to be done, even if it means suffering, sacrificing, or looking rejection and death in the face. As we enter Holy Week, these people just might be the companions we need.

A Word From Pope Francis

"This week it would benefit all of us to look at the crucifix, to kiss the wounds of Jesus, to kiss them on the crucifix. He took upon himself all human suffering, he clothed himself in this suffering..."

General Audience,
April 16, 2014

Let us kiss the crucifix and say: for my sake, thank you Jesus, for me."

PHOTOSEBIA / SHUTTERSTOCK

Did Jesus have to die in such a terrible manner?

Q Why did Jesus have to die such a horrible death? Wasn't there an easier way to redeem us?

Every Good Friday we are brought face to face with the crucifixion. Many of us have seen violent and bloody depictions of Christ's death and found them difficult to watch. Since we serve an all-good, all-loving God, how could he allow this to happen to his Son? Couldn't God have forgiven us without the sacrifice?

God is indeed a God of mercy, but we often forget that he is also a God of justice. He can certainly forgive all our sins, but in the process he cannot (will not) deny the righteousness of justice. We all yearn for justice. We want to see good rewarded and evil punished. So God is very good, and the fact is, our sins are also very bad. We deserve punishment, even death, for denying God and for hurting others. If God were to condemn me, it would not be unfair. I would be getting exactly what my sins deserve. I am happy to say that is not where the story ends! Jesus came to take our just punishment so that we could receive mercy and justice in their fullness. Jesus reveals to us a God who is just, merciful, and ready to suffer because he loved sinners. Praise his name forever!

FOLLOW HIM

We are called to live out our faith by building deep, loving relationships. When we do so, our faith stops being merely a long list of dos and don'ts and becomes instead a vibrant living out of our friendship in Christ. We understand that following Christ means loving like him and firmly believing that nothing can separate us from his own love for us.

OFFICE OF BISHOP

GOOD FRIDAY

A collection to support
Christians in the Holy Land

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Pope Francis has asked the Church to support Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world to stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace in a troubled land.

In these challenging times in the Middle East, your support means that the Church will conduct parish ministry, provide Catholic education, feed the hungry, build housing for Christians, maintain shrines and operate refugee centers in the Holy Land.

Christians, along with all of the clergy and religious who serve in the Holy Land, will deeply appreciate your prayers and financial help! The political, religious and military challenges in the Holy Land are more complex than ever. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians.

Our Diocese will support Christians in the Holy Land by participating in the Good Friday Collection on March 25, as requested by Pope Francis. Like Simon of Cyrene, you can help carry the cross under very difficult circumstances in the Holy Land.

Thank you for supporting this collection. May God bless you during this Holy Year of Mercy!

Sincerely in the love of Christ,

Most Rev. Robert D. Gruss
Bishop of Rapid City
