St. Juliana's (Patron Saint of sickness) is a list of the people we are currently praying for because of illness or in the military. To stay current, names on the illness list will remain for four weeks. The military list will remain until we are notified. Please call the office (842-3520) to request continued prayers. To preserve the dignity and privacy of individuals, we ask that only an immediate family member call to request publication of names. We will presume they have permission from the individual to do so. Thank you for your understanding.

"Looking Good!"

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments" (John 14:15) Sunday, May 1st Sixth Sunday of Easter

"Through work man must earn his daily bread and contribute to the continual advance of science and technology and, above all, to elevating unceasingly the cultural and moral level of the society within which he lives in community with those who belong to the same family. And work means any activity by man, whether manual or intellectual, whatever its nature or circumstances;" "Man is made to be in the visible universe an image and likeness of God himself²." "Work is one of the characteristics that distinguish man from the rest of creatures, whose activity for sustaining their lives cannot be called work." Only man is capable of work, and only man works, at the same time by work occupying his existence on earth. Thus work bears a particular mark of man and of humanity, the mark of a person operating within a community of persons." Pope Francis http://w2.vatican.va

The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers."

Easter + May 1, 2016 + Acts 15:1-2, 22-29 + Rv 21:10-14, 22-23 + Jn 14:23-29

a watershed moment in Church history. I remember the nuns in our school turning on the radio to listen to reports. They shared what Pope St. John XXIII said at the start of the council. The media still follow large Church events, but it's easy to forget that Church leaders have been gathering to talk about the issues of the day since the first century.

In the first reading, we hear (in fairly abbreviated form) about the Council of Jerusalem. The apostles and other leaders of the Church came together to discuss whether Gentiles had to be circumcised (a tenet of Jewish Law) before they were baptized. There were legitimate claims on both sides. Remarkably, the leaders prayed, talked, and prayed some more. They spoke from their experience and their faith. They assumed that all the assembled were people of faith, and so they wrestled together to find the answer most in keeping with the commands of Jesus.

In the end, when they decided to admit Gentiles without circumcising them, the whole community recognized that the Holy Spirit was at work, and the letter sent to the various churches began, "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us..." The Council of Jerusalem gives us a model for resolving our differences: pray, dialogue, and pray some more. This week, read all of Acts 15 to see what happens when we trust the Spirit to guide us rightly: arguments fall silent, and we find delight, strength, and peace (see 15:12, 31–32; John 14:27).

Spiritual direction vs. advice

What is spiritual direction? How does it differ from counseling and simply asking for religious advice?

In spiritual direction, a person is guided in a process of reflection, self-discovery, and recognition of God's presence in human experience; the primary focus is on this individual's relationship with God. Thus, in one sense, it is the Lord himself who is the "director" in all spiritual direction.

In counseling, a person is also guided in a process of reflection and selfdiscovery; but the primary focus is on human growth and development. Counseling does not presuppose a person's faith or relationship with God; spiritual direction cannot be complete without it.

Both spiritual direction and counseling share the same expectations of openness and honesty in the process; they share the same standards of confidentiality and professional conduct. Moreover, spiritual direction is similar to counseling in its aim toward human growth and development; but it further aims toward holiness and "toward ever more intimate union with Christ" (Catechism of the Catholic Church 2014). That union is twofold: a personal relationship with Christ and one with Christ's Church. "This union is called 'mystical' because it participates in the mystery of Christ through the sacraments" (CCC 2014). "All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity. All are called to holiness: Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect" (CCC 2013).

A MEDITATION FOR SPRING

Like spring, we, too, can begin again. Failure is never final in this life or on this beautiful, God-given earth. We can always have a fresh start. The circumstances will be different. The losses from what passed before are real, and we can't ignore them. The damage from winter is true damage. But even so, we can always begin again.

One Minute Meditations

St. Philip Neri

Born in Florence in 1515, St. Philip Neri was known for his impulsiveness and sense of humor from a young age. Although he was in line to become a successful businessman, he abandoned his career for a life of prayer and study, spending much of his time giving spiritual direction to the youth. He later founded the Oratorians, where reading, singing, and charitable works were to be True charity is challenging because it requires patience. St. Therese said, "True charity consists in putting up with all one's neighbor's faults, never being surprised by his weakness, and being inspired by the least of his virtues."

Think positively about everyone - even those who irritate you.

Give your prayer life a boost

A rich prayer life is the key to happiness in this life and the next. Enriching our prayer is not always about the prayers we say, however. How we approach our time in prayer can be as important.

"Be still, and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:11). When we greet a dear friend, we may wave, hug, or say, "hello."
When beginning prayer, start by placing yourself in God's presence and greet him as a dearly loved one.

Come as you are. God is the only one in our lives with whom we can be completely ourselves. We don't need to have special clothing, use flowery language, or fold our hands a certain way. For prayer to work, we just have to bring our whole selves. You will be amazed by what he will do with that.

Take time out.
"Silence is so lacking in this world which is often too noisy, which is not favorable to recollection and listening to the voice of God" (Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI). Find fifteen minutes you can make silent and place God at the center of your attention.

Don't stop with prayer.

Prayer helps us to learn God's will for us. When we act in communion with his will, it is then that our whole life becomes a prayer in action.

Why do Catholics believe in the Trinity?

The Trinity is one of the great, central mysteries of our faith. We believe it because Jesus, who is Truth, revealed it to us. "Go...make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19). The Trinity is one God in three Persons: the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Catechism of the Catholic Church, # 253). The Three Persons are distinct from one another, yet each is God.

Mary brings us to the heart of her Son

Jesus so loved his mother that his last thoughts on the Cross were of her. He gave her to us as our own mother, and wants us to honor her. "Since Mary is rightly to be regarded as the way by which we are led to Christ, the person who encounters Mary cannot help but encounter Christ likewise" (Mense Maio, Blessed Pope Paul VI).

For her "yes." Without fully understanding what God intended, she unhesitatingly agreed to become his mother. Her "yes" made it possible for God to become human and be crucified for our salvation. Following her example means saying "yes" to whatever God asks.

For her sacrifice. Wouldn't you be forever grateful to someone who gave up her child so that you and your loved ones might live? Mary loved her amazing child and she experienced unspeakable heartache as he was sacrificed for us. Praying the Rosary regularly reminds us of the life of Jesus and the desire of his Mother to bring us close to his heart.

from Scripture

Luke 9:11b-17, God's generosity

This Gospel illustrates Jesus' compassion and generosity. He and his disciples were tired after a long, hard day of preaching. Certainly he would have been entitled to some rest. Yet when the crowds followed him, he cared for them and taught them. The people were tired and hungry, so he asked the disciples to feed them.

Overwhelmed by the numbers, they asked Jesus to send everyone home to get food. It seemed like an impossible task to feed them all.

Instead, Jesus took what little food they had — five loaves and two fish — and multiplied it a thousand times. The disciples were awed by Jesus' power. For God, there is no need so great that it can't be

We may give
God a little time,
attention, or service but we cannot "out-give" the Giver. He will take our gift to him and give us something magnificent in return. We see this clearly in the Eucharist. God only asks for an hour of our time once a week. In exchange he gives us himself – Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity.

Feasts &  © Celebrations

May 5 - Ascension of the Lord. This solemnity marks the completion of Jesus' mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven. Note: In many dioceses, observance of the Ascension has been moved to the following Sunday.

May 10 – St. Damien of Molokai (1889). Born in Belgium in 1840, Joseph de Veuster became Father Damien at the age of 19. He ministered to people with leprosy on the Hawaiian island of Molokai where he built roads, water systems, churches, and coffins. He began each homily with "My dear Lepers," until one day it became "My fellow Lepers." He died of the disease after serving for sixteen years. He is the patron of lepers and outcasts.

May 13 – Our Lady of Fatima (1917). The Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three peasant children near Fatima, Portugal. Mary gave the children three secrets and asked them to pray the Rosary for world peace, for the end of World War I, for sinners, and for the conversion of Russia.

What is Corpus Christi?

Corpus Christi is the solemnity that celebrates the transformation of the bread and wine into Jesus' Body and

Blood in the Holy Eucharist. It is celebrated on the Sunday following
Trinity Sunday.
St. Juliana of Mont
Cornillon, Belgium, had a deep devotion to the Eucharist. One night, St.

Juliana had a vision. She saw the full moon, representing the Church, with a dark spot in it, representing the missing solemnity. The Eucharist was so important it needed its own feast day.

St. Juliana petitioned everyone from her bishop, Robert de Thorete, to the pope to institute a special feast in honor of the Eucharist. Bishop Robert, who favored her request, ordered the celebration to be held in his diocese. Word of the solemnity reached Pope Urban IV, and in 1264, he ordered a Church-wide celebration for Corpus Christi, and granted indulgences to the faithful if they attended Mass that day. Finally, he asked St. Thomas Aquinas to compose the Office for the feast.

Did you see these hashtags last year? Maybe you used them yourself!

Pope Francis's visit to the United States last year was a historic moment in the life of the Catholic Church in the United States. The Catholic bishops of the United States wanted to make sure that everyone could join in the excitement of the visit, and they called on the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) to make that possible.

CCC funds enabled live streaming of the events; empowered Catholic News Service coverage by a team of 60+ journalists; supported an unprecedented social media effort; and facilitated coverage of the events by more than 7,000 credentialed media personnel.

CCC funding of the social media campaign enabled impressive and unparalleled results during the six days of the pope's visit:

- 2,462 published posts
- Five exclusive hashtags created with Twitter
- Tens of millions of social media post views
- 1.65 million video views (that's 20,000 per hour!)

This means that the millions of people who couldn't travel to the cities the pope visited were still able to participate in real time.

These efforts would not be possible without your support! Your contributions to the CCC Collection continue the work of communicating the Gospel around the world. In addition, 50% of CCC funds collected in your (arch)diocese remain in your (arch)diocese to support local communication efforts.

The reach of the CCC is truly immeasurable, and we invite you to become a part of it.

Visit www.usccb.org/ccc to learn how your support makes a difference and shares the light of Christ with all.

"Communication is really about realizing that we are all human beings, children of God."

—Pope Francis, Message for the 48th World Communications Day

OFFICE OF BISHOP

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We surely all remember the historic visit of Pope Francis to the United States last September. It was an honor to welcome him to our country and listen to his words of love for us. The Catholic bishops of the United States wanted to be sure that everyone joined in the excitement of the visit, and they called on the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) to make that possible.

The CCC enabled thousands of Catholics to participate in the events remotely. CCC funds enabled live streaming of the events; empowered Catholic News Service coverage by a team of 60+ reporters, editors, photographers and videographers; and facilitated coverage of the events by more than 7,000 credentialed media personnel. The social media team achieved real success by creating over 2,000 pieces of content reaching people from all over the globe.

This visit truly had unprecedented reach in sharing the Gospel and it reflects the ongoing impact of the CCC in helping to evangelize and engage people with the faith.

These efforts would not be possible without your support! Your contributions to the CCC Collection continue the work of communicating the Gospel at home and around the world.

And remember, 50% of all funds collected remain here in our diocese to support our local communication and evangelization efforts.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this campaign during the second collection today. Your gift means that people throughout western South Dakota, our country and our world will better know the love of God and the Church.

Sincerely in the love of Christ,
