Free Presentation on the Harmfulness of Pornography

Addiction to pornography is a serious problem in epidemic proportions. The rapid growth to this addiction has grown exponentially in the Internet age. Pornography is addictive in any medium, but because the use of the Internet is at your fingertips on many different types of devices, it is much easier for people to view pornography at any time and any place. This multi-billion dollar industry corrupts the minds of its viewers, exploits people of all ages including children, creates a sex-crazed culture, and destroys lives and families. Peter C. Kleponis, Ph.D., a Licensed Clinical Therapist and Assistant Director of Comprehensive Counseling Services in Conshohocken, PA, will be giving a series of conference to the clergy of the Diocese of Rapid City on May 25. He has agreed to give a free presentation that evening to the public on how we can fight porn in our culture, protecting families and helping those in recovery. To be held Wednesday, May 25 at 7 p.m., in Holy Cross Chapel at the Terra Sancta Retreat Center. All are invited to attend!

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS!

We are happy to have you! Please stop by the parish office for information and to register, we also have registration forms at the back of the church and on our website: www.catholictripp.org. or give us a call at 842-3520.

"The obligation to earn one's bread by the sweat of one's brow also presumes the right to do so. A society in which this right is systematically denied, in which economic policies do not allow workers to reach satisfactory levels of employment, cannot be justified from an ethical point of view, nor can that society attain social peace." - The Hundredth Year (Centesimus Annus...) #43

Prayer for the Jubilee of Mercy ~ Pope Francis

Lord Jesus Christ,

you have taught us to be merciful
like the heavenly Father,

and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.

Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew
from being enslaved by money;
the adulteress and Magdalene

from seeking happiness only in created things;
made Peter weep after his betrayal;

and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.

Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us,
the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman:

"If you knew the gift of God!"

You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all
by forgiveness and mercy:

let the Church be your visible face in the world,
its Lord risen and glorified.

You willed that your ministers

would also be clothed in weakness

in order that they may feel compassion

for those in ignorance and error:

let everyone who approaches them

feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God:

Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing,

so that the Jubilee of Mercy

may be a year of grace from the Lord,

and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm,

may bring good news to the poor,

proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,

and restore sight to the blind.

We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy,

you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

♦ May 15, 2016 ♦

Acts 2:1-11 ♦ 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Rom 8:8-17 ♦ Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 14:15-16, 23b-26

Our daughter married into a large Italian family whose get-togethers include dozens of people. (More than fifty were there for Christmas dinner, and not everyone could make it.) Ours is a small and often-quiet family, so Katy had to get used to more noise and activity than she had growing up. It was like learning a new language. It's often that way when couples wed. Over time, we come to know the inside jokes, the way the in-laws mark occasions, who we can joke with and who prefers a more serious interaction. Just as with growing up in our own families, we become a part of them, and they become a part of us.

When the Holy Spirit descended on those gathered in the upper room, it was like a wedding. They had to learn the language of God's family—one that included proclamation, sharing, repentance, and mercy. They had to learn what it meant to be part of one body, using their unique gifts to build on what Christ had already started. With the Holy Spirit as inspiration and source of grace, the disciples and apostles were sent to testify and invite the world to the eternal life that Christ offers.

In any relationship it takes time to get to know the other. God has the advantage in his relationship with us—he already knows us fully and intimately. In getting to know him and learning his language, we may feel awkward or out-of-place. But he constantly welcomes and invites us to be a part of his life and Church, knowing we might eventually come to live with him forever.

The Bible on life on other planets

What does the Bible say about life outside our solar system?

VADIM SADOVSKI / SHUTTERSTOCK

The simple answer to this question is that the Bible doesn't specifically mention life on other planets. However, there are some important biblical principles that would speak to the possibility of such a discovery.

Begin with the account of creation in Genesis: "In the beginning, when God created the heavens and the earth..." (1:1). We believe that everything that exists was created by God. All stars, planets, minerals, plants, and animals flow from the creative activity of the Holy Trinity. If there is any type of life anywhere in the universe, it owes its existence to the God we worship. So if we discover plants, animals, or even ameba on some distant planet, we should praise our Creator for that life as we do our own.

Implicit in this question is the possibility of intelligent life, and not simply lower organisms. Are there possibly societies, technologies, or even churches on other planets? Again, the Bible does not really say. If we find intelligent life, it will not be any threat to our faith. Remember: we understand that we are created in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:26–27). If there are intelligent species out there, they in no way would challenge that unique relationship. After all, the Son of God came to the earth as one of us.

Mary in the midst of the Church is the Mother of the Church. She sits amidst the apostles, the teachers who would bring the Good News of salvation to the world. She teaches the inner meaning of the Pentecost story. She teaches us devoted prayer and, by her body language, a pondering kind of silence.
