5th Annual Bishop's Fishing Tournament for Seminarians Friday, June 9

Join the Annual Bishop's Fishing Tournament and Parish Team Fishing Challenge which benefits seminarians in western South Dakota. No boat — no worries — Participants may fish from shore. Registration will be from 7-11 a.m. on Fri., June 9. Breakfast and box lunches will be provided. Following the day of fishing, Bishop Gruss will celebrate evening Mass at St. John the Evangelist Church in Ft. Pierre. A fish fry dinner will be served at the parish hall after Mass followed by an awards presentation. Parishes or individuals may donate items for a Silent Auction, which will be held the day of the tournament. For further information contact the Western South Dakota Catholic Foundation (605) 343-3541 for a brochure or sign up online at www.wsdcf.org.

Holy Spirit Novena

Bishop Robert Gruss is asking people in the Diocese of Rapid City to pray a novena for the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Please begin Friday, May 26, nine days before the Solemnity of Pentecost, Sunday, June 4. The Holy Spirit is the unseen moving force of God in the world — unseen but not unheard. It was the Holy Spirit who inspired the prophets of the Old Testament to lead the people to God. It was the Holy Spirit who inspired the evangelists to write the Gospels and Epistles. Today it is the Holy Spirit who guides the faithful: "and I will send the Holy Spirit to inspire you."

A copy of the novena can be downloaded at <http://rapidcitydiocese.org/holy-spirit-novena/> or at the parish office.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

The Church is convinced that work is a fundamental dimension of man's existence on earth. She is confirmed in this conviction by considering the whole heritage of the many sciences devoted to man: anthropology, paleontology, history, sociology, psychology and so on; they all seem to bear witness to this reality in an irrefutable way. But the source of the Church's conviction is above all the revealed word of God, and therefore what is a conviction of the intellect is also a conviction of faith. The reason is that the Church—and it is worthwhile stating it at this point—believes in man: she thinks of man and addresses herself to him not only in the light of historical experience, not only with the aid of the many methods of scientific knowledge, but in the first place in the light of the revealed word of the living God. Relating herself to man, she seeks to express the eternal designs and transcendent destiny which the living God, the Creator and Redeemer, has linked with him.

SUPPORT THE CATHOLIC COMMUNICATION CAMPAIGN

Your gifts to the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) bring the message of the Gospel to people from all walks of life, all around the world.

Where do your donations go?

Fifty percent of all funds collected remains in your diocese to fund local communications projects. The other half helps to fund national and international programs that use the media to evangelize. In the past year, CCC funds have made possible:

- TV and e-books to the faithful in five developing countries
- 365 days of audio podcasts and video reflections on the daily readings
- Over 127 million page views on the USCCB.org website in 2015
- Thousands of Catholics engaged daily through social media channels
- Millions of people reached . . . and still counting!

By supporting the CCC, you help bring the gospel message to "everyone, without exception," as Pope Francis asks.

"God Bless you for this wonderful way to begin my days. Before 6:30 Mass I read the readings. When I return home later I then watch the video reflection for more insight. Please let everyone there know what a wonderful work all of you are doing."

"Love, by its nature, is communication"

—Pope Francis, Message for 50th World Communications Day, 2016

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Soon our diocese will take up a collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC). This collection helps bring the gospel message to the public square so that all can know the love of God. Pope Francis has reminded us that "communication has the power to build bridges, to enable encounter and inclusion, and thus to enrich society" (World Communications Day Message, 2016). Your support of this collection helps to enrich society and to invite all to encounter the love of God.

For example, as people continue to access more and more information on mobile devices, there is an increased need to provide faith resources on these platforms as well. With your support of the CCC, the daily readings are available as free podcasts to download and listen to on the go. In addition, the readings are also available in English and Spanish by email subscription. By supporting the CCC, people across the country are able to experience the Scriptures in a new way and are never far from the Word of God.

Half of the funds collected will remain here in the diocese to fund our local communications projects. The other half will fund national communications efforts as well as international projects in developing countries.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this campaign during the second collection today. Your gift means that people throughout western South Dakota, our country and our world will better know the love of God and the Church.

Sincerely in the love of Christ,

+ Robert D. Gruss

Sixth Sunday of Easter (A)

Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

1 Pt 3:15-18

Jn 14:15-21

Shepherd, Advocate, Savior

Jesus promised he wouldn't leave us orphans. As a good shepherd, he was concerned that he would eventually have to leave his sheep. How would he care for them while he was away preparing a place for them? He promises to pray to the Father for an advocate who would be with us always. We are entrusted to an advocate who cares for us until Christ returns.

That advocate is Jesus' very Spirit, the Advocate, the Spirit of truth. The apostles understood this. That's why their first order of business after baptizing a new believer was to place hands on him or her and pray for the Holy Spirit to come down and confirm the new believer with his gifts. They knew this was essential since it was Jesus' way of staying close to his believers.

This Spirit, which we received at baptism and whose gifts we more actively embraced at confirmation, is a friendship we absolutely need to cultivate. Its inspirations are constantly present, and listening to them is key to maturing as disciples. Who wouldn't want to have direct access to the heart and power of Jesus? Who wouldn't want to have the zeal of the first apostles? Who wouldn't want to have the same spiritual gifts: wisdom, understanding, counsel, courage, knowledge, piety, and awe?

We can. We do. We have the Holy Spirit! If you don't notice his action in your soul the way you'd like to, simply ask the Spirit to help you hear and respond better. Then just stand back and watch him work.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

What helps increase my awareness of the Holy Spirit's presence in me? Which one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit do I most need?

"I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth...[Y]ou know it, because it remains with you"
(John 14:16-17).

Dear Padre,

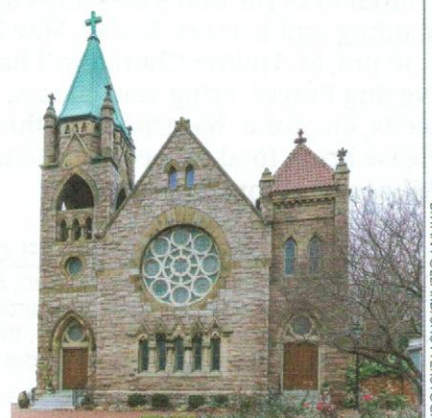

We are often encouraged to invite non-Catholic friends to Mass, but is it also OK to visit their churches on Sunday?

It is good to invite friends to our Church and share our faith with others. We don't even have to invite or share as a way to convert. We can simply teach others about our Catholic faith. It is especially appropriate at a special celebration, a first Communion, a wedding, or a funeral. You can visit your friends' churches on Sundays or for special occasions in the same vein. It's good to learn about other religions and support our friends in their faith life.

However, as Catholics we also have an obligation to attend Mass every Sunday. Going to another church for a Sunday service is not the same as participating in the Mass, so it would not fulfill that Sunday obligation. Additionally, you won't be able to receive Communion in most other churches, just as your friends can't receive Communion in the Catholic Church.

So if you go to another service on a Sunday, make sure you also attend Mass. Many churches may have the same readings or similar rituals, but as Catholics we need to be nourished weekly through the celebration of the Eucharist.

A few churches believe what we believe about the Eucharist, and they will be listed in most missalettes. If you were to attend one of these churches, it would fulfill your Sunday obligation. For more information from the Pontifical Council for Promoting Christian Unity, do an Internet search for Directory for the Application of Principles and Norms of Ecumenism, and see paragraph 123. It's on the website Vatican.va.

A Word From Pope Francis

"The Holy Spirit teaches us....He guides us along the right path, through life's challenges....In the early times of the Church, Christianity was called 'the way' (see Acts 9:2), and Jesus himself is the Way. The Holy Spirit teaches us to follow him, to walk in his footprints."

—Homily, Pentecost, June 8, 2014
