ANointing OF THE SICK: Those who are sick, facing surgery or hospital care, and the elderly, are encouraged to receive this sacrament. Fr. Andrzej is happy to administer it after any Mass or by appointment. Please contact the parish office regarding seriously ill members of your family for anointing or hospital visits. Hospital personnel are not allowed to call unless specifically asked by a family member.

SPIRITUAL COUNSELING: Is available by appointment. Please call the parish secretary to schedule an appointment.

HOMEBOUND/HOSPITAL/NURSING HOME MINISTRY:
Our parish communities strive to continue to bring the Eucharist to those no longer able to come to Mass and celebrate with the larger community. Please call the parish office if someone you know is in need of homebound ministry. Eucharistic Ministers are willing to bring communion to those requesting it according to the availability of ministers.

"The primary norm for determining the scope and limits of governmental intervention is the principle of subsidiarity" cited above. This principle states that, in order to protect basic justice, government should undertake only those initiatives which exceed the capacities of individuals or private groups acting independently. Government should not replace or destroy smaller communities and individual initiative. Rather it should help them contribute more effectively to social well-being and supplement their activity when the demands of justice exceed their capacities. This does not mean, however, that the government that governs least, governs best. Rather it defines good government intervention as that which truly "helps" other social groups contribute to the common good by directing, urging, restraining, and regulating economic activity as "the occasion requires and necessity demands".

Prayer for the Jubilee of Mercy ~ Pope Francis

Lord Jesus Christ,
you have taught us to be merciful
like the heavenly Father,
and have told us that whoever sees you sees Him.
Show us your face and we will be saved.
Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money;
the adulteress and Magdalene
from seeking happiness only in created things;
made Peter weep after his betrayal,
and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.
Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us,
the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman:
"If you knew the gift of God!"
You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all
by forgiveness and mercy:
let the Church be your visible face in the world,
its Lord risen and glorified.
You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error:
let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.
Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the Jubilee of Mercy
may be a year of grace from the Lord, and your Church, with renewed enthusiasm,
may bring good news to the poor,
proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed,
and restore sight to the blind.
We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

One Minute Meditations

St. Martha

St. Martha is a model of faith and service. Jesus was close to Martha, her sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, and visited them in their home. Martha served him as a dear friend.

When Lazarus died, Martha made one of the first acts of faith. She said, "I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God ... I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you." Jesus brought Lazarus back to life.

Look with love

God looks at us with a father's love. He sees us as he created us to be - his beloved children who deserve another chance. When you're tempted to focus on another's faults, ask God to help you see everyone as he does - with love.

"[God is] always patient, patient with us...he never tires of forgiving us if we know to turn to him with a contrite heart."

Pope Francis

There are calmer waters ahead

Following current events can feel like floating in a rowboat without oars. Tossed about in a sea of indifference, battling the waves of terrorism, rocked by swells of immorality gives the impression disaster is looming. As children of God, though, we know there are calmer waters ahead.

Pray – Prayer keeps us moored to God. It is during prayer that we hear God's voice and learn his path for our lives. During prayer, especially the Rosary when we reflect on Jesus' salvation journey, God fills our hearts with the peace and grace we need for our travels.

Hope – Hope is what keeps us moving forward no matter how rough the seas. Children of God know that when we surrender to God's care, his promise of a better future will be fulfilled. "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life ..." (Luke 12:22).

Detach – In rough seas, the right amount of weight can float or sink a boat. To survive, we can lean on God for what we need and throw the rest overboard. Either we live spiritually or we live materially. We can't do both.

Obey – There is one captain on this ship. If we follow his commands, we will survive any storm. Remember, though, there are many other voices vying for our attention. Obey one. Obey His.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

What is the Magisterium?

The Magisterium is the teaching authority of the Church. It consists of the pope and the bishops with him, who are the successors of St. Peter and the Apostles. "The task of giving an authentic interpretation of the Word of God...has been entrusted to the living, teaching office of the Church alone" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #85).

Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, the Magisterium defines Church doctrine according to what Jesus taught and the Apostles handed on.

Reconnect with faith this summer

The lazy days of summer can make it tempting to be lazy about prayer and worship but the slower pace of summer makes it a great time to reconnect with the one who loves you most.

Make Mass. There's no vacation from Mass, even though we are on vacation. In fact, admiring churches in new places and participating in different parish customs can freshen our own outlook.

Summer reading. Give "beach reading" a new meaning. Read a spiritual book of which you may have heard but not yet read. Whether a classic or a more contemporary religious book, reading it during the summer can give you more time to reflect on what you read. (Hint: if you need a suggestion, your pastor, priest or religious would be happy to help.) Serve. Parish ministries usually suffer from low staffing during the summer. Call your parish office to see if you can fill in if help is needed cleaning the church, visiting the sick, greeting parishioners, or elsewhere faithful hands are scarce.

from Scripture

Luke 12:13-21, Store up treasure that lasts

A man asked Jesus to settle a family disagreement over money. Rather than get involved, Jesus told a parable that warned against the attachment to wealth. Wealth, financial security, and possessions can disappear in an instant, but God's love is forever.

Jesus said, "One's life does not consist of possessions" (Luke 12:15). When we die, our life will not be measured by what we had, but by how we used it in service to others, especially God. The Rich Fool was not condemned because he had wealth, but because he was so focused on himself that he never thought to share his extra grain with those who didn't have enough.

Jesus told his disciples, "Provide money bags for yourselves that do not wear out, an inexhaustible treasure in heaven that no thief can reach nor moth destroy" (Luke 12:33). For Jesus, living the good life is about loving God and the people he created. A healthy prayer life, loving acts of service, and reaching out to the lonely, the poor, and the sick are what makes us truly wealthy.

Q & A Who is the Holy Spirit?

The Holy Spirit is the third person of the Blessed Trinity and has the same majesty as the Father and the Son. At the Last Supper, Jesus told his disciples about the coming of the Holy Spirit, who would remind them of Christ's teachings and continue to lead them "to all truth."

"The Advocate, the holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name—he will teach you everything and remind you of all that (I) told you" (John 14:26). As Jesus promised, the Holy Spirit descended on the Church at Pentecost and has continued to guide the Church ever since.

"To be in touch with Christ, we must first have been touched by the Holy Spirit. He comes to meet us and kindles faith in us" (CCC #683). God sends the Spirit into our hearts and makes us his children (Galatians 4:6). We first receive the Holy Spirit at our Baptism, from whom we receive sanctifying grace. His presence in our souls is strengthened at Confirmation.

Feasts & Celebrations

July 2 - St. Oliver Plunkett (1681). Born in County Meath, Ireland in 1629, St. Oliver Plunkett was ordained in Rome in 1654, and appointed Archbishop of Armagh in Ireland a few years later. In the wake of anti-Catholic persecution, he was forced to do his work in secret. In 1679, he was arrested and sent to London, where he was falsely charged with fomenting rebellion and executed.

July 15 - St. Bonaventure (1274). Cured of an illness through the prayers of St. Francis of Assisi, St. Bonaventure became a Franciscan. As minister general of the order, he cultivated a love of the way of St. Francis and the order's ideals.

July 31 - St. Ignatius of Loyola (1556). Ignatius spent several years defending his native country of Spain, which resulted in serious injuries. While he was recovering, he began a religious conversion and a lifelong dedication to education. He wrote spiritual exercises and started a community of priests now known as the Society of Jesus.

Ordinary Time

June 19, 2016 ♦ Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Zec 12:10–11; 13:1 ♦ Gal 3:26–29 ♦ Lk 9:18–24

A few years ago at the ice rink my daughters skated at, I picked up an ad for hockey gear. The pictures showed shoulder pads, shin guards, helmets, and chest pads. What caught my eye was the name of the company and the way they advertised. This was “Christian Protective Gear.” I immediately began chuckling to myself as I imagined the Apostle Paul calling on all of us to “put on the armor” of righteousness and wondering if this was what he had in mind (Ephesians 6:10–17). I think not, but the reading from Galatians reminded me of the ad: “you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.” What does that mean for us today?

The Church teaches that we must show forth the love and mercy of God, especially with regard to the least and poorest among us. In a poem by St. Teresa of Ávila, we are reminded that “Christ has no body but yours, / No hands, no feet on earth but yours.” In today’s Gospel, Jesus says that to put on Christ is to follow in his footsteps, to take up our cross daily, and to lose our lives for his sake that we might find them forever. Most of us can get behind love, mercy, and compassion for others—at least in theory—but discipleship in its fullest is no easy task. Are we willing to live our lives as Christ even when it isn’t easy, when it requires denying ourselves and suffering? Only we can answer that, and with God’s help through grace and the sacraments, the answer can be “yes!”

What if we can't conceive?

How far is OK to go when dealing with infertility?

Catholic teaching holds that procreation, along with the love expressed between spouses in the sexual act, is one of the principal ends of marriage. The act itself is holy within that context, and the resulting children are a fruit of that love and a gift—not a right of every couple. Most of us know couples who are unable to conceive. Sometimes a technique or medication can help, but not always.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that, “techniques that entail the dissociation of husband and wife, by the intrusion of a person other than the couple (donation of sperm or ovum, surrogate uterus), are gravely immoral....Techniques involving only the married couple (homologous artificial insemination and fertilization) are perhaps less reprehensible, yet remain morally unacceptable....Only respect for the link between the meanings of the conjugal act and respect for the unity of the human being make possible procreation in conformity with the dignity of the person” (CCC 2376–77, see also Donum vitae).

Infertility treatments such as in vitro fertilization (IVF) not only depersonalize the sexual act but also carry the greater problem of the disposal of the fertilized but unused embryos, which are real human beings. When judging an act, we must consider our intentions and the act’s nature and ramifications. Most situations involve many issues, so I suggest you discuss yours further with a competent spiritual advisor.

FOLLOW HIM

Jesus’ identity as the Son of God gives us an important key to understanding his life and mission. He lived and acted with a purpose hidden in the depths of his relationship with the Father. This relationship influenced his conscious thoughts and unconscious desires and lay behind his life in Nazareth, his ministry in Galilee and Judea, and his sacrifice on Golgotha.
