Humanae Vitae 48th Anniversary!!

On July 25, 2016, the Church will celebrate the 48th Anniversary of Pope Paul VI's encyclical on married love, Humanae Vitae, a timeless teaching, which is incredibly timely today! Pope Paul VI predicted that contraception would lead to a myriad of unintended consequences including marital infidelity, lower moral standards, a lessening of the "reverence due to a woman" and increased interference by the government into "the most personal and intimate responsibility of husband and wife." Unfortunately, one doesn't need to be a social scientist to see that his warnings were sadly prophetic.

But there is hope! St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body increased the Church's understanding of the beauty of married love, and scientific advances in Natural Family Planning have made it possible to responsibly live out the call to authentic married love in the 21st century. Come find out and celebrate how the timeless, yet timely, teaching of the Church is more relevant today than ever! Your prayers, your witness, your knowledge, and your willingness to share all of this can change our culture and change our world!

Sunday, July 10th Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The Catholic tradition teaches that human dignity can be protected and a healthy community can be achieved only if human rights are protected and responsibilities are met. Therefore, every person has a fundamental right to life and a right to those things required for human decency. Corresponding to these rights are duties and responsibilities--to one another, to our families, and to the larger society." www.usccb.org

Ordinary Time

July 10, 2016 ♦ Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

Dt 30:10–14 ♦ Col 1:15–20 ♦ Lk 9:25–37

The scholar of the law had the right answer, but the wrong question. Love God with all your heart is the great Jewish law, and love your neighbor as yourself was part of the Holiness Code of Leviticus. But he asked, “Who is my neighbor,” as though neighborliness was determined by a specific set of rules or restrictions: My neighbor is the person who lives next door, attends my child’s school, or works in my field.

We, too, may think we’ll help a neighbor, but a stranger—an outsider, a foreigner, someone who simply isn’t “like me”—may be a different matter. For many, there are a few exceptions: When natural disasters strike, for instance, people reach out to help. They clear debris, send money, food, and supplies, and try to comfort the victims. In such circumstances, they are all neighbors.

Jesus turns the scholar’s question around: “[Who] was neighbor to the robbers’ victim?” This change put the responsibility of being a neighbor on us. The answer becomes, I am a neighbor to everyone I meet, whether stranger or friend, black or white, Christian or atheist, gay or straight, native or immigrant. Being a neighbor and loving neighbors is part and parcel of loving God and following Christ. Once I realize that, I must acknowledge two connected truths: God sees me as I am, loves me, and calls me neighbor; and the only conceivable response to that love is to see God in every person and to love them in return.

Can a non-Catholic be a cantor at Mass?

Our parish hired a non-Christian to be the cantor at both Sunday Masses. I'm uncomfortable hearing her sing, and a priest told me that only a Catholic is allowed to sing the psalms. What do you make of this?

The reform of the liturgy following Vatican II emphasized the importance of certain ministries. These are familiar to most Catholics: lectors, extraordinary ministers, and cantors typically support the clergy in Sunday liturgies, and lay catechists have instructed and formed both children and adults for decades. When a person exercises a ministry, he or she is not simply completing a function but truly sharing in the priesthood of Christ in a special way. Thus, extraordinary ministers must believe (and behave as though) they are distributing the Body and Blood of Christ, not just bread and wine. Lectors must believe they are reading the word of God, not just good advice or an old storybook. And cantors should be in harmony with the hymns they are singing. This does not mean a parish can't hire a non-Catholic; liturgical law doesn't limit most ministries to Catholics. Nonetheless, to sing of God's love, your cantor needs to do more than hit the correct notes and appeal to our sense of musical aesthetics. If she believes what she sings, I think she's OK in her position; if not, she is simply performing, and the ministry of cantor is not the place to do that.

Francis said Christians are called to act like Jesus did with Bartimaeus. "Jesus' disciples are called to this, even today, especially today: to bring people into contact with the compassionate mercy that saves," said the pontiff. "When humanity's cry, like Bartimaeus', becomes stronger still, there is no other response than to make Jesus' words our own and... imitate his heart."
