Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In human society one man's natural right gives rise to a corresponding duty in other men; the duty, that is, of recognizing and respecting that right. Every basic human right draws its authoritative force from the natural law, which confers it and attaches to it its respective duty. Hence, to claim one's rights and ignore one's duties, or only half fulfill them, is like building a house with one hand and tearing it down with the other. (St. John XXIII, Peace on Earth [Pacem in Terris: . . ], no. 30)

As for the State . . . It has also the duty to protect the rights of all its people, and particularly of its weaker members, the workers, women and children…

Hello Everyone,

It is with great joy that I write to you today about Dave Ramsey’s Financial Peace University. You don’t have to live with the stress of debt; you don’t need to live paycheck to paycheck. Dave’s 9 week course will teach you how to make a plan to attack your debt. Just join us one night a week for 9 weeks and you will learn Dave Ramsey’s common sense method to kick debt out of your life forever. It’s simple, we meet as a group and view one DVD lesson a week and have a fun group discussion afterward. It’s the best way to become debt free. No other program has helped more people get out of debt and stay out of debt for life!

What can Financial Peace University (FPU) do for you? FPU gives you the tools to tackle your debt.

A Show of Mercy

One of the most important signs of true strength is the ability to show mercy. The Roman emperors understood this and were praised when they showed clemency toward a criminal. The one who has the power to condemn also has power to forgive.

The artist Ippolito Scarsella—in his painting Virgin and Angels Imploring Christ Not to Punish Lust, Avarice and Pride—depicts this mercy, as it applies to Jesus, in classic allegorical fashion. Mary and the angels are shown pleading with Jesus to hold back his wrath against lust, avarice, and pride. Jesus is rearing back to launch arrows upon them, yet Mary begs him to withhold his judgment.

The Book of Wisdom praises God, for “he is master of might, but governs with lenience.” The fact is, he would be fully justified to reprimand every vice of his creatures, yet he chooses mercy.

What a wonderful lesson for all persons in authority!

It’s enough to just look at the Gospel. The weeds are not immediately torn out or burned out of consideration of the wheat. Both are allowed to grow and develop to maturity to insure the harvest. Permitting the good to struggle with evil allows the good to grow in perfection. It also gives the bad a chance to convert.

God gives every grace to those who love him so that we may not succumb to the challenges around us. His mercy gives the sinner every possible chance to repent and be saved. This is the heart we must have for one another and why we should never gloat about our goodness or despair of our weaknesses. While there is life, there is hope.

—Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection
Do I more readily imitate God’s judgment, justice, or mercy? How can I practice all three?

“The Spirit…comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought.” (Romans 8:26).
Dear Padre,

If I’m late for Mass, can I receive the Eucharist?

There is no hard-and-fast rule on how “late” one can be for Mass and still receive Communion. Holy Communion is offered outside of Mass at times, so theoretically you could come during the Communion rite and still receive Communion.

But there is more to be considered with this question. If you are going to go Mass, you should be there from the beginning to the end. You should be there before the entrance procession begins and you should stay until the last verse of the final song is sung. Things happen, like an unexpected train on the way to Mass or a sick child who needs attention and care. However, if you find yourself always coming late to Mass, you may need to make a change in your routine.

I remember cleaning out a closet of a church I was stationed at, and I found a sign with ropes attached to it. It stated, “Mass has begun, the next Mass begins at...” and there was a place where you could list the time of the next Mass. I was told the ropes were tied across the entrance so you couldn’t come in Mass late.

Those days are gone, though. It’s up to you to follow your conscience. It is important to participate in the entire celebration, but if on the rare occasion you come late to Mass, ask yourself, “Can I prepare myself to worthily receive Communion at this moment?” If you can answer “yes” to that question, then I would say it would be OK to receive Communion.

A Word From Pope Francis

“With our eyes fixed on Jesus and his merciful gaze, we experience the love of the Most Holy Trinity. The mission Jesus received from the Father was that of revealing the mystery of divine love in its fullness. ‘God is love’ (1 John 4:8, 16), John affirms for the first and only time in all of Holy Scripture. This love has now been made visible and tangible in Jesus’ entire life. His person is nothing but love, a love given gratuitously.

The relationships he forms with the people who approach him manifest something entirely unique and unrepeatable. The signs he works, especially in favor of sinners, the poor, the marginalized, the sick, and the suffering, are all meant to teach mercy. Everything in him speaks of mercy. Nothing in him is devoid of compassion.”

—Misericordiae Vultus, April 11, 2015
