Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University presented by Thomas & Jadviga Strubel

Financial Peace be with you,

We had our first FPU class this past Tuesday. It was energizing. Imagine a group of people coming together and discussing how they can not only change their future, but the future of their entire branch of their family tree. People sharing their experiences with money; people caring and supporting one another as they learn how to manage money God's way. I feel so honored to be a part of this group; a group that is doing what it takes to realize their dreams. Big things will happen in FPU. And I am certain that the best is yet to come.

Last Week's Lesson:

Super Saving

Dave explains the seven Baby Steps that will guide you throughout Financial Peace University.

What are reasons we should save?

1. EMERGENCIES! Build a cushion to prevent debt. Don't make an emergency worse by piling debt on top of it. Even a modest savings account with proper budgeting can serve as a guard against debt.
2. PURCHASES. If you had no car payment, no credit card bills -- Please, Lord! Not a Payday Loan! -- and no debt because you saved up and paid cash how would your life be different?
3. WEALTH BUILDING. Being wealthy isn't evil. Because money isn't the root of all evil, the root of evil is the "love of money". So save, be wealthy, be generous, do God's work with the money he trusts you to manage.

Next Week's Lesson:

Relating with Money

Learn why it's important for spouses to communicate and work together toward success.

A Chosen People, A Common Ancestry

All of today's readings have a common theme: how Jesus' words to his Jewish brothers and sisters influence our faith.

The Catholic Church's relationship with our Jewish brothers and sisters has been strengthened dramatically over the last years. This is thanks in large part to Vatican II's Declaration on the Relationship of the Church to Non-Christian Religions (Nostra Aetate), particularly Judaism.

Our deep connection with Judaism is rooted in the fact it was to these Chosen People God offered the Old Covenant. We are also indebted to them because their history and culture formed the lives of the people of God and the Holy Family, from which the early Church sprung.

Christianity's firm belief that Jesus was the long-awaited Messiah is the reason our Church is like a shoot sprung from the root of Jesse. This difference was something Paul's Letter to the Romans dealt with directly—the need for all, both Jews and Gentiles, to accept Jesus.

The key element to this acceptance is the faith shown in the Gospels. Jesus reaches out to his fellow members of the house of Judah yet also recognizes that a Canaanite (Gentile) woman has faith that leads to salvation. This has key implications for both insiders and outsiders: One can no longer claim salvation by a bloodline or nationality but only by one's acceptance of Jesus as the Son of God and active participation in his body, the Church. Jesus broadens the welcome and opens God's house to all people.

Dear Padre,

What are the gnostic gospels and apocryphal books? Is it OK to read them?

In the two earliest manuscripts of the Bible, both of which are in the Vatican Library, one contains the seven apocryphal books of the Old Testament and the other does not. The Catholic Church includes these apocryphal books and considers them to be the inspired word of God, as is everything included in Catholic translations of the Bible. Selections from these books are included in our Lectionary and proclaimed during Mass.

When Martin Luther left the Catholic Church, he used the Bible manuscript that did not contain the seven apocryphal books, but then he placed these books in a section between the Old and New Testaments, calling them Deuterocanonicals. He did not discard these books entirely but considered them of lesser importance than the other books. Some Protestant translations of the Bible exclude these books altogether.

The gnostic gospels, however, are entirely separate from these apocryphal books. Gnosticism is a heresy condemned by the Catholic Church. As part of their false proclamation, gnostics produced stories of Jesus' life that supported their belief, and these "gospels" contain teachings that are contrary to our Catholic faith. While the gnostic gospels could be read out of interest in their historical or philosophical context, they are not the inspired word of God and should not be read in that light.

APOCALYPSE OF PETER/WIKIPEDIA

A Word From Pope Francis

"Mutual understanding of our [Catholic and Jewish] spiritual heritage, appreciation for what we have in common and respect in matters on which we disagree: all these can help to guide us to a closer relationship, an intention which we put in God's hands. Together, we can make a great contribution to the cause of peace; together, we can bear witness, in this rapidly changing world, to the perennial importance of the divine plan of creation; together, we can firmly oppose every form of anti-Semitism and all other forms of discrimination. May the Lord help us to walk with confidence and strength in his ways."
