This weekend the Church observes Catechetical Sunday, the day which we bless the men and women who devote themselves to teaching the Catholic faith in our parishes. These individuals have invested a great deal of time last year in advanced training to become more effective in this critical work of the Church. Please pray for them throughout this year of faith formation, that their new knowledge may serve to make them confident and clear teachers of the faith. May Mary, their Mother and Patroness of catechists, help them to lead our youth deeply into the mysteries of her Son's life!
