Prayer shawls are traditional forms of praying for others in a tangible, physical way. It's one thing to say "I'm praying for you," but another to hand someone a physical object that constitutes an entire process of prayer! Usually, prayer shawls are given to people who are in a time of suffering and need. They can go to people you know, or you can donate them to total strangers.

For more information please see the display in the vestibule of the Immaculate Conception Church.

The next Christian Family Planning Seminar will be offered by the Natural Family Planning Ministry on Saturday, November 21, 9:00 a.m. – Noon at St. John's in Ft. For more information or to register, contact Kathy at 716-5214 x 220, kcordes@diorc.org.

Sunday, October 18th Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Brothers and sisters in the Lord: At the conclusion of the 1998 ad limina visits of the bishops of the United States, our Holy Father Pope John Paul II spoke these words: Today I believe the Lord is saying to us all: do not hesitate, do not be afraid to engage the good fight of the faith (cf. I Tim 6:12). When we preach the liberating message of Jesus Christ we are offering the words of life to the world. Our prophetic witness is an urgent and essential service not just to the Catholic community but to the whole human family." www.usccb.org (From www.rapidcitydiocese.org/family-life-ministries-social-justice/social-justice-commission)

Ordinary Time

October 18, 2015 ♦ Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We might forgive James and John for their ambition. They had, after all, been with Jesus since the beginning. They had seen him heal the ill, cast out demons, and preach about repentance for the forgiveness of sins. Surely Jesus had a power that no one else had. And surely he would give it away to those who asked for it. James and John make a mistake. They thought power and greatness have to do with position.

We are so like them. We often think that people are great if they have abundant wealth or prestigious titles. We consider them powerful if they have higher or several degrees or if the world judges them to be attractive. And the world tells us this is so. But Jesus has a different message. Greatness has nothing to do with wealth or education. Sitting at the right and left hand of Jesus does not depend on appearance, position, or accomplishments. Rather, greatness comes from being willing to empty yourself for the sake of others. Our power lies in being the least among our neighbors.

Jesus challenges us in this reading. He dares us to let go of our ideas of greatness and to become servants of all. He invites us to “do the lesser things” with no strings attached or expectation of reward. (The word “ministry” comes from the Latin minus/minor and Greek meion, meaning “less, smaller.”) We must serve in love out of love for him. This week, look for little things you can do for others, giving thanks to God for this invitation.

Are priests and religious the same?

The pastor of my parish recently asked us to pray for “priests and religious.” Aren’t they the same thing?

Some priests are religious, but not all religious are priests. As used here, the term “religious” refers to a member of a religious order—a man or woman who has professed vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience and who follows an approved rule of their religious congregation. Redemptorists, Sisters of Mercy, Franciscans, Jesuits, and Benedictines would all be examples. Members of a religious order can be sisters or brothers, but some religious men are priests as well. We call these religious men “Father.” A priest who is not a religious is attached to a diocese and promises obedience to his bishop. He would be celibate but would not have a vow of poverty, so he would receive a salary and could own his own house or car.

Behind your question is an important point. All priests are called to be “religious,” holy men (in the spiritual sense) who bring us closer to Jesus by the celebration of sacraments, leadership, preaching, and the lives they live. In fact, all of the baptized are called to be holy; religious profession and priestly ordination are just two ways that Catholics live out their baptismal calling. The most common vocation is marriage, a sacrament alongside holy orders.

By listening to and imitating Mary’s question to God’s messenger (“How can this be?”), we can learn to ask the Lord for the information needed to serve him better. As we learn to imitate our Lady, we’ll be less concerned with the potential consequences and more focused on what God wants us to do.
