Priesthood Sunday

The last Sunday of October is a special day set aside to honor the priesthood in the United States. This year, the day falls on October 29. It is a day to reflect upon, and affirm, the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated by the USA Council of Serra International. It is sponsored by the USA Council of Serra International and the Serra International Foundation. Please take an opportunity on October 29 to honor the priests in your life! Visit the Office of Vocations Facebook page for tributes written by parishioners to our parish priests.

Diocese of Rapid City 2017 Women's Retreat Joyfully, Boldly, Lovingly

October 27-29 ~ Terra Sancta Retreat Center, Rapid City
It's not too late to sign up!

In our Diocesan Pastoral Priority Plan, we are called to attract and form intentional disciples who joyfully, boldly and lovingly proclaim and live the mission of Jesus Christ, leading to eternal life. As women, we have particular gifts and callings by which we can live out that mission. We see that gift in the haste with which our Blessed Mother visited her cousin Elizabeth after receiving the gift of the Annunciation. The joy of our feminine genius will be explored through meditations on Sacred Scripture, with reflections on Sacred Art.

This year our retreat will be facilitated by Amy Julian, Director of Family Life ministries for the Diocese of Rapid City. After coming into the Church in 2001, Amy continued involvement in RCIA & RCIC for over a dozen years, where she was blessed to participate in the journey of many others coming into the Church. Through Rachel's Vineyard Retreats, she has witnessed the joy of those coming back to Christ after the trauma of abortion. A Veritatus Splendor Masters graduate, she is in the process of obtaining the Level III Catechist Certification for Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Both programs have filled her with a joy which she is anxious to share.

Accommodations for the retreat are: (Please note a correction in rates!)

Monastic Room-$ 135 * Family Style Room: Single Occupancy-$220/Double Occupancy-$150 * No Lodging, Meals only $85

Register on line at www.terrasancta.org or for information on the retreat contact Amy Julian at 605-716-5214 or ajulian@dioc.org

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"When we fail to acknowledge as part of reality the worth of a poor person, a human embryo, a person with disabilities – to offer just a few examples – it becomes difficult to hear the cry of nature itself; everything is connected."

Pope Francis, On Care for Our Common Home (Laudato Si), no. 117)
www.usccb.org/beliefs-and-teachings/what-we-believe/catholic-social-teaching/life-and-dignity-of-the-human-person/cfm

Our Divine Mark

Have you ever wondered why so many ancient busts of emperors and gods still exist? In any major museum around the world, you'll see rows of these masterful sculptures. The Vatican Museums have one of the best of these collections. The photo was taken in one of the galleries.

Thousands of busts and statues of the emperors and gods were produced for civil use in ancient times. Just like the American president's portrait is in every US embassy, so Caesar's sculpted form was all over the Roman Empire. For example, a bust would be placed in the town squares of the outlying territories to indicate that a border population belonged to the Roman Empire. The sculptures of Roman gods were also set up in public places around town so that a certain religious unity was preserved. Being within the empire obliged citizens to pay tributes and taxes, and it assured them of protection. Once the Caesars declared themselves divine, their statue also required sacrifice and worship.

The image of the Caesar marked what belonged to him: from land, to money, to people, to prayer. If you were under his image, you belonged to him.

We also carry the mark of a divine image that indicates to whom we belong. Each human being is made in the image of God, to be his reflection. We are sculpted and formed to reflect the artist who made us. God gives humans dignity because we are an eternal reflection of God's free, intelligent, artful, and beautiful nature. Our inalienable rights, rooted in our spiritual and rational nature, come from our Creator, as do our duties. No government or individual can give or take them away.

It is proper to render unto Caesar what is his, but both Caesar and his subjects must render to God what belongs to God. —Fr. Mark Haydu, LC

For Reflection

Do I realize my dignity and value doesn't come from others' opinions or even my opinion, but from God's gift?

Do I render to God what he deserves for all he has given me?

Pieces: Roman busts and statues

Artists: Various

Location: Chiaramonti Museum—Braccio Nuovo Gallery, Vatican Museums

*He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's."
At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:20-21).*

Thirtieth Sunday
in Ordinary Time

Ex 22:20-26

1 Thes 1:5c-10

Mt 22:34-40

Dear Padre,

Would you kindly address the issue of donating to charities? I'm sure others receive requests for money from many different organizations. I feel guilty discarding letters with pictures of starving children, when I eat well.

I have the same dilemma. I live in the richest country in the world. I could live much more simply and dispose of all the income I don't need. But to do so would require a substantial change in lifestyle and would undoubtedly be viewed by many as irresponsible.

Some are called to live a life of radical giving and radical poverty. Others—most of us—are called to live simply according to our circumstances and needs. We're called to be generous, but we're also expected to plan for the future, provide for our families, and seriously accept the other responsibilities before us.

It is not necessary to respond to every particular need for which you receive an appeal, no matter how needy or worthy it may be. Choose a representative sampling of charities that you feel you can support, and discard the other appeals. Do so in good conscience. If, in the future, you find yourself to be in a situation where you can be even more generous, then by all means choose to do so.

A Word From Pope Francis

Profit and capital are not a good over and above the human person; they are at the service of the common good. When the common good is used only at the service of profit and capital, this has a name: it is called exclusion, and through it the throwaway culture gets stronger and stronger.

—Homily in Ciudad Juárez, Mexico, February 17, 2016
