The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls)

"[T]he courage and grace shown by those women who choose life—in the face of fear, uncertainty, parental or partner intimidation, seemingly insurmountable odds—make them today's heroes. They are joined by the many who counsel, support and nurture them both before and after the birth of their child. Such self-giving love...is powerfully transformative of mother, of child, of families, of cultures."

The Diocesan Social Justice Commission requests prayers for all unborn babies in danger of abortion. A sample prayer entitled Spiritual Adoption Prayer is as follows: "Jesus, Mary and Joseph, with love for you I ask your intercession to protect the life of unborn children. May they all come to birth healthy and be a source of joy to their parents. For those in danger because of abortion, I adopt them as my own and pray for them and their mothers."

One Minute Meditations

St. Andrew Dung-Lac

St. Andrew could also be the patron of the persecuted. In 1785, he was born in Vietnam to a poor family. He converted, and became a Catholic priest assigned to the missions. He was swept up in the terrible religious persecution of the emperor, Minh-Meng. St. Andrew and his companions were arrested and tortured to force them to renounce their faith. They refused and were martyred. Today, such religious persecution continues in many parts of the world.

Catholic Guilt

Popular culture often refers negatively to "Catholic guilt," implying that Catholics are weighed down by an unfortunate awareness of having done wrong. Sincerely acknowledging true guilt is the first step toward forgiveness.

God, the Partner

When David faced insurmountable odds against the Philistines, he turned to God for help. He asked if he should fight, he followed instructions carefully, and he gave God credit for his victory.

Stewardship is giving thanks

For many Catholics, we think seriously about stewardship when our parish or diocese raises money but real stewardship is about becoming more fulfilled and having a greater sense of purpose. It is giving back to God in gratitude for his gifts. And while it's not just about money, good stewards have all the money they need.

God's family comes first. All families come together in love to care for each other, enjoy each other, and support each other. In God's family, we come together in his love to care for each other, enjoy each other, and support each other. As good stewards, we meet the needs of God's family first, before we spend time or money on anything else.

Find your place. Ask God to help you discern and learn your place in his family. What are you to do with your gifts?

Take your seat at the table. Find out where you can put your talents to work in your parish. Talk with your pastor, with the rectory staff, and with parish leaders.

Think before spending. Before you commit your time or money to any purpose, make sure you have taken care of the needs of God's family first. Everything we have and everything we are comes from God. He deserves the best we have to give in return.

Why Do Catholics Do That?

Judas Maccabee ordered prayers and sacrifices for Jewish soldiers who died in sin (2 Maccabees 12:38-46). St. Paul prayed for Onesiphorus after his death (2 Timothy 1:18). Catholics believe that prayers and sacrifices benefit the dead.

Why do Catholics offer Masses for the dead?

When we die in God's friendship we eventually go to Heaven, but if we haven't properly atoned for certain sins we have to be purified in Purgatory first. We pray for the souls in Purgatory to help them pass through faster than they would otherwise.

The Catholic plan for world peace

Our world is often turbulent but the Church believes a just and fair world is possible when seven key principles are embraced:

Life and dignity of the human person: We were created in God's image, therefore all life is sacred. This belief is the foundation for a just world.

Call to family, community, and participation: People have a right and a duty to participate in society, seeking the well-being of all.

Rights and Responsibilities: Everyone has a right to life and to what is necessary for human decency.

Option for the poor and vulnerable: We are to treat as urgent the needs of the poor and vulnerable.

Dignity of work and workers: The worker has a right to productive work, to decent and fair wages and to the protection of basic rights.

Solidarity: We are one human family. We are to love our neighbors as brothers and sisters and work for justice and peace everywhere.

Care for God's creation: We show our love for God by protecting his creation.

from Scripture

Mark 13:33-37, Be watchful, be alert

This gospel is from the first Sunday of Advent. We are preparing to celebrate the birth of Our Lord, his first coming. Christmas is a time of joy, for Jesus came to us in human form to redeem us from our sins.

But Advent is a time for us to prepare for when Jesus comes again. In the Creed we say, "...he will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead." We don't know when this will happen. It could be tomorrow; it will certainly be when we die. Jesus' message is to be watchful and alert for his coming.

To be watchful involves getting our individual lives in order. Christ gave us the sacraments so we can do this, especially the Sacrament of Penance. Being in a state of grace means we are prepared to meet Jesus.

However, this preparation involves each of us gathering the harvest. It means each of us being a missionary in our lives so everyone may come to know and love the Lord when they come face to face with God.

Q & A

Why does God make us suffer?

When the disciples asked Jesus whose sin resulted in a particular man being born blind, Jesus replied, "Neither he nor his parents sinned; it is so that the works of God might be made visible through him" (John 9:2-3). God doesn't send it, but he uses our suffering to draw us to him.

Suffering comes from living in a world made imperfect by sin. Jesus points out that God doesn't want our needless suffering and will help us through it. "Which one of you would hand his son a stone when he asks for a loaf of bread, or a snake when he asks for a fish? If you then, who are wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good things to those who ask him" (Matthew 7:9-11)? And he leaves in his wake a trail of discarded crutches, bandages, and bonds to prove it.

Feasts & Celebrations

The first day of Advent falls on Nov. 30 this year and begins a new year in the Church calendar (Cycle B). The Advent wreath is lit in households all over the world as we anticipate the birth of our Lord.

Nov. 1 – All Saints Day. In the early Church, each saint and martyr was assigned a feast day. However, the persecution of the Christians became so great that there weren't enough days in the calendar for individual commemorations. Eventually Pope Gregory IV designated Nov. 1 as All Saints Day.

Nov. 2 – All Souls Day. This is a day when we pray for the dead, especially our loved ones and souls in Purgatory. Our prayers and sacrifices can help them get to Heaven faster.

Nov. 23 – Our Lord Jesus Christ the King. A solemnity that commemorates Our Father's promise to his people of a king who will triumph over their enemies. Jesus is our King. In Baptism and Confirmation, we are brought under his kingship.

"But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

Sown in the Heart

The rich soil, capable of producing abundant fruit in our diocese, is cultivated when we allow Jesus to till our hearts.

When we give Jesus permission to take root in a profound way, He revitalizes the arid soil of our souls, weakened by tepidity, doubt, and fear with nutrients of receptivity, intentionality, and generosity.

Sown in the Heart is an invitation to prayer, to a deeper union with Jesus. Please take time to invite the Holy Spirit into your life and ask the Spirit of God for a sacrificial heart, so that our Annual Diocesan Appeal may produce a plentiful harvest for the people of God in Western South Dakota and our ministries.

Matthew 13:8

"My time in seminary is one of the greatest gifts that God has given me. Through those formation programs, in many ways, I became the man I am today and am able to serve His Holy Church as a priest. Those beautiful years were only made possible by the extraordinary generosity of the people of the Diocese of Rapid City. I am forever indebted to their sacrifices."

~ Fr. Jonathan Dillon, Associate Pastor of the Cathedral of Our Lady of Perpetual Help

"This last July I had the joy of bringing a group of 93 to the Steubenville of the Rockies conference in Denver. We had an amazing adventure, first to Elitch Gardens, then to the conference, where we enjoyed hilarious speakers, great music, and above all Christ in the Eucharist and Reconciliation. There were over 3,000 Catholic teens there and the level of energy in the building was incredible. It was a profound and moving experience for the youth and chaperones alike; I can't wait to go back again next year!"

~ Randy Vette, Coordinator of Youth Ministry,
St. Therese the Little Flower

"A marriage is between you, your spouse, and Jesus Christ. Being rooted in Christ gives you the desire to always put your spouse first. This continuous act of service for each other will bring great joy and peace to your lives. A couple who has joy will be admired, and the desire for a holy marriage will spread."

~ Tanner Wald, SDSM&T and Sarah Wald, BHSU

"I have been going to the Hospice House on request. There is a real sense of holiness in praying for the dying because they are living in both the temporal world and the spiritual world simultaneously. There is joy in witnessing a dying person find peace and comfort in God..."
