Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Origin of the Feast of Christ the King: "In 1925, Pope Pius XI instituted the Feast of Christ the King in encyclical Quas Primas to respond to secularism-the adoration of 'idols; of the earthly world, such as money and fame, above God. Pope Pius recognized that secularism would breed hostility against the Church.'" "Quas Primas gave Catholics the hope that while governments may crumble, Christ's Kingdom, unlike the kingdoms of this world, would last forever."

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

◆ November 22, 2015 ◆

Like many people, when I hear the words “king” and “queen,” I have an image formed by fairy tales and historical novels. The rulers of countries live in castles. They wear crowns and long capes and sit on thrones while their loyal subjects pay them homage. While I am aware that modern kings and queens wear “regular” clothes unless tradition dictates otherwise and that castles have become more contemporary, I still watch royal weddings for a glimpse of the pageantry that fed my childhood fantasies.

Pilate had an idea of what kings were like, too. In the first century, kings made laws and led people into battle. They had great armies and were a danger to another country’s way of life. The Jews kept talking about a Messiah who would become king and destroy Israel’s enemies. Pilate wasn’t taking any chances. For Rome’s sake, he would get rid of anyone who seemed a threat.

What Pilate failed to realize was that Israel’s king had a very specific function, and it was not to make laws or lead armies.

Instead, the king was to study and obey the Law of God and become himself the example of obedience (see Dt 17:18–20). When Pilate called Jesus “the King of the Jews,” his words were truer than he knew, for Jesus was obedient to his Father, even unto accepting death for our sake. But Pilate had no idea why he was right because he was thinking in human terms.

Today we honor Christ, the king of the Jews, of all of us, and of the whole universe. Let us see him as he is and do as he does.

Dear Padre

Does Jesus transcend the limits of time, space?

Revelation says God is “the one who is and who was and who is to come” (1:8). Does this apply to Jesus as well? The Creed says he was “born of the Father before all ages.”

John 1:1–3 says, “In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came to be through him, and without him nothing came to be.” Similarly, the author of Wisdom refers to the Word and Spirit of God this way: “Now with you is Wisdom, who knows your works and was present when you made the world” (9:9).

Origen, one of the early Church fathers, pointed out, “whatever is said of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, is to be understood as transcending all time, all ages, and all eternity” (The Fundamental Doctrines, 4:4:1).

This means that even though Jesus was physically born into the world as we were, we cannot equate Jesus’ birth with our birth. Jesus transcends the limits of time and space. This is a mystery involving his dual natures—of his being fully human and fully divine.

The Word of God is eternal; it has always existed, and it always will. In this context, it is not simply a published text or historical figure. Jesus is the Incarnation of the Word. Therefore, his presence and redemptive grace span history and geography.

OFFICE OF BISHOP

Annual Appeal 2016

"... above all, let your love for one another be intense ..."

November 22, 2015

Grace and Peace to you, Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As I shared with you earlier, this past year has been an amazing year for the Diocese of Rapid City. The Lord Jesus has blessed our diocese in so many ways! The Lord never ceases to amaze me. He will not be outdone in generosity!

For a few moments I invite you to quiet your heart and ponder the amazing things the Lord has done in your life this past year. Where did you experience the intensity of God's love for you, for your family and friends? When we are able to name and to claim God's grace in our lives we are filled with a heart of gratitude, so much that we want to emulate the same type of love for others through our own generosity.

The theme for our 2016 diocesan appeal is ".... above all let your love for one another be intense..." When our love becomes real and we are able to reach out to one another as Christ has reached out to us, God's kingdom becomes more fully alive.

The Annual Diocesan Appeal is an important way for every Catholic family to participate in building God's kingdom in western South Dakota. We are called to be good stewards of the gifts which the Lord has entrusted to us, not to be kept for ourselves but to be used to enrich the kingdom of God. Our love for one another becomes intense when we are willing to make a sacrifice for others.

Many of you have generously responded to this message. I am deeply grateful for your support. You are making a difference. If you have not yet made your pledge of support, I ask you to prayerfully seek the Lord's guidance regarding what he is asking of you in light of this year's appeal.

Please be generous in pledging both your financial support and your prayers for the mission of our great diocese and the 2016 annual appeal. May our love for one another be intense.

Sincerely in the peace and joy of Christ,

+ Robert D. Gruss
